;
•
!
i
,
ĺ
•
•
•

All this of the said (1th said)
(Disdring Office and Officer)	This document scusists of 1 page DEPARTMENT OF STATE Dopy No. / of 4 copies, Series
M-728	Memorandum of Conversation 762.00/2-1759
	viemoranaum of Conversation - 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7
(3)	DATE: February 17, 1959
In week Grownko's Reacti	on to Delivery of Jerman Note on Four-Pewer Conference
JBJECT: Gromyko's deactl	s,
	FEB 19 Mile
ARTICIPANTS: Dr. Wilhelm	Turnwald, First Secretary, German Embessy; . Freers, Director, Office of Eastern European Affairs.
Mr. Edward D	Turnwald, First Secretary, German Embassy; Freers, Director, Office of Eastern European Affairs.
OPIES TO:	American Embassy, Boscow 13 American Embassy, Bonn
EUR 3	American Embassy, Paris
GER · ·	American Embassy, London /6
EE - 1 (1 cc) 4	17-19 (19)
DRS - # 1 5 1	2
Dr. Turnwald read i	me the substance of Ambassador Kroll's report of his
Conversation with Poreign Power conference was presented that the would be considered and commented that the form sion of reunification of this was a matter for the security and disarmament progress at the conference.	the matter of the date and place for such a conference the Soviet Government would present its views. Gromyko all proposed in the German note would call for a discussionary. He set forth the standard Soviet line that he two Germanies. He said that a discussion of European to would not be helpful but, on the contrary, would make note more difficult.
Gromyko said that the would be considered and commented that the form sion of reunification of this was a matter for the security and disarmament progress at the conference was required in order to the solution of the different known as a contract that it is the conference of the conference proposition of the conference proposition of the conference proposition.	t would not be helpful but, on the contrary, would make note more difficult. resented the German view that discussion of these problems of work toward a relaxation of tension which would make ficult problems of Berlin and Germany easier. Ambassador was his impression that the Soviets might talk about robably would be unwilling to discuss disarmament problems sed.
Gromyko said that the would be considered and commented that the form sion of reunification of this was a matter for the security and disarmament progress at the conference was required in order to the solution of the different knowledge of the conference proposed at the end of the	t would not be helpful but, on the contrary, would make note more difficult. resented the German view that discussion of these problems of work toward a relaxation of tension which would make ficult problems of Berlin and Germany easier. Ambassador was his impression that the Soviets might talk about robably would be unwilling to discuss disarmament problems sed. conversation. Gromyko tossed out a few words in German, reported was a highly unusual thing for Gromyko to do led to give the conversation an especially friendly tone.
Gromyko said that the which Ambassador Kroll and probably was intend copy No(s)	t would not be helpful but, on the contrary, would make note more difficult. resented the German view that discussion of these problems of work toward a relaxation of tension which would make ficult problems of Berlin and Germany easier. Ambassador was his impression that the Soviets might talk about robably would be unwilling to discuss disarmament problems sed. conversation. Gromyko tossed out a few words in German, reported was a highly unusual thing for Gromyko to do led to give the conversation an especially friendly tone.
Gromyko said that the would be considered and commented that the form sion of reunification of this was a matter for the security and disarmament progress at the conference was required in order to the solution of the difference of the solution of the difference of the conference proposed to the conference proposed that it the end of the which Ambassador Kroll and probably was intend Copy No(s) Destroyed in RM/R	t would not be helpful but, on the contrary, would make note more difficult. resented the German view that discussion of these problems of work toward a relaxation of tension which would make ficult problems of Berlin and Germany easier. Ambassador was his impression that the Soviets might talk about robably would be unwilling to discuss disarmament problems sed. conversation. Gromyko tossed out a few words in German, reported was a highly unusual thing for Gromyko to do led to give the conversation an especially friendly tone.
Gromyko said that the which Ambassador Kroll and probably was intend copy No(s)	resented the German view that discussion of these problems of work toward a relaxation of tension which would make ficult problems of Berlin and Germany easier. Ambassador was his impression that the Soviets might talk about robably would be unwilling to discuss disarmament problems sed. conversation, Gromyko tossed out a few words in German, reported was a highly unusual thing for Gromyko to do led to give the conversation an especially friendly tone.

SECRET

91 EUR: EELFroors: AUR